

FLORIDA ENERGY COMMISSION

Constance “Connie” L. Ennis

Connie Ennis, the Florida Energy Commission’s Program Director, has worked in state government for 32 years, 17 of which have been spent working for the Florida Legislature. Before joining the Legislature, Connie worked for the Governor’s legal office. Her background includes highly responsible administrative work for the Office of Legislative Services and for the Florida Public Service Commission Nominating Council, as well as extensive meeting planning experience.